

Florida from £690 per person

The 'Sunshine State' offers a perfect holiday for all ages, with a wonderful climate, perfect beaches and theme parks galore, so it's not surprising that Florida is the world's number one destination for fun. Most popular of all is Orlando, a complete pleasure dome that the kids will adore, adults will love and singles can let their hair down. Outside the theme parks, visitors can fill their days and nights in a city built on imagination. Orlando offers live music, theatre, galleries, festivals and an array of dining experiences to whet any appetite, be it kid friendly or haute cuisine.

THE RADISSON KISSIMMEE RESORT ORLANDO, FLORIDA

The Radisson Kissimmee Resort is conveniently located on acres of beautiful landscaped gardens, close to many popular attractions, world-class shopping, prestigious golf courses, theatres and the award-winning, Disney-built town of Celebration. The resort is close to Walt Disney World® Theme Parks, and staff will be more than happy to provide a scheduled shuttle service to the Epcot Centre and other Disney parks.

Back in resort guests can relax and take advantage of the resort's wealth of activities that include 2 outdoor swimming pools, 2 outdoor spa tubs, tennis, a games room and a children's playground. Dining options include a 50's Deli and Diner, Mandolins, a Sports Bar and Cascades Pool Bar.

Guest accommodation is spacious and well equipped for the whole family, with air conditioning, refrigerators, and bathrooms with a tub/shower combination, complimentary toiletries and shaving mirrors. Internet connections are complimentary, premium channels come with flat screen TVs so if need be, the kids are entertained whilst you are connecting with the outside world.
